

Kim Chilcott - South QLD

Kim Chilcott is a distinguished figure in the culinary world, celebrated for his dedication to excellence and mentorship. As a fifth-generation hospitality professional, he served as chef patron of the first gastropub in his home county in the UK, earning accolades from major British institutions for quality and a steadfast commitment to ingredient provenance.

In Australia, Kim has been an active member of the Australian Culinary Federation (ACF), contributing significantly to the South Queensland Executive Committee. His leadership and passion have been instrumental in advancing the culinary profession within the region.

Beyond his culinary achievements, Kim has demonstrated a strong commitment to community development. As Director of Pacow International, he supported the Vietnam Swans' Pathway Program, fostering local talent and promoting Australian beef specialties.

Kim Chilcott's enduring contributions to the culinary arts and community initiatives continue to inspire both peers and aspiring chefs, solidifying his legacy in the global hospitality industry.

